Poem

“Table Manners”

By Janice Sherwin

I show I have good manners

As much as I'm able.

I remember to keep

My arms off the table.

I say, “May I please have...?”

And also, “Thank you!”

I keep my mouth closed

As I quietly chew.

I use my fork or spoon.

I stay in my seat.

I wipe with a napkin

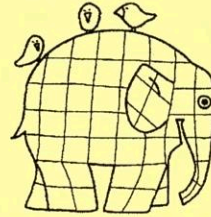

And keep fingers neat.

I show my good manners;

I never act rude,

For good table manners

Go well with good food!
